The students in prep have enjoyed learning about each other and one of the tasks was to draw a picture of their families. We were so impressed at the level of drawing skills produced by our students, as this task was introduced in the second week of them commencing school.

We hope you enjoy looking at them as much as our students enjoyed drawing them!!!