The students have been learning about different types of monkeys. To end the week of gathering and sharing information the students took part in an art activity in making monkeys. The students had a great time making them! The monkeys look amazing hanging around in our prep rooms.