In the Junior Primary, students actively engaged in a Cooking Activity. Each student made feeling faces. They iced and decorated biscuits with different facial feelings.

Prior to the cooking activity, students worked in pairs and brainstormed the various feelings. Then they shared their findings with the whole class. Students also illustrated feelings on large sheets which are displayed in the classrooms.